

A Family Covenant

(based on 1 Peter 3:8-12)

We, the members of the _____ family, covenant together that we will:

- identify with each others problems (3:8)
- love each other as a family should (3:8)
- genuinely care when someone hurts (3:8)
- put others before ourselves (3:8)
- not retaliate, but treat each other well, regardless of how we are treated (3:9)
- not bad mouth each other (3:10)
- not lie to or about each other (3:10)
- make good moral choices, realizing that how we live affects our whole family (3:11)
- contribute to a peaceful atmosphere that makes others want to be home (3:11)

In all things, no matter what anyone else does, we will do the right thing, because we know this is pleasing to the Lord (3:12)
